Increase of nearly half million dollars over the assessment of 1923 is shown in this year's city assessment, according to figures compiled by William Wallbrecht, city assessor, for the mayor and city commissioners. The total assessment for this year is $5,776,800.

Assessments on each class of taxable property follows: Land and lots, $1,354,810; improvements, $2,916,090; personal property, merchandise, store fixtures, etc., $1,219,675; 569 automobiles, $245,250; 79 trucks, $40,750; 4 motorcycles, $625; total, $5,776,800. The poll tax assessments amount to $2,657.50.

This is an increase of 1923 assessment of $447,729, distributed as follows: Land and lots, $91,136; improvements, $310,916; personal property, $45,678.

This increase, figured at $2.30 per hundred dollars, the 1923 rate of taxation, shows an increase in the revenues of the city from taxes this year of $10,297.77.

The figures indicate a healthy growth in the city during the past year. Not only have the number of residence and business houses increased considerably during the period but the value of real estate has advanced.

The figures will be placed in the hands of the city commissioners who will give the books to the board of supervisors for any adjustments deemed necessary. The date which this board will begin work has not been announced.

Bulk of Salvation Army Funds From Chest Are Spent Here

Less than seven per cent of the Salvation Army funds supplied by the Community Chest leaves Middlesboro, according to figures based on the 1923 report. The great bulk of the money is used in the city here for relief work.

One hundred and eighty-five dollars of the fund goes to home missionary work in this section and the headquarters assessments is $100 annually, the latter being necessary to retain the organization here. Two hundred and sixty dollars goes into a sinking fund from which new buildings of the district. Each town gets this money back, however, as each, in its turn, is provided with a rescue home. Middlesboro will get a two-story brick rescue home within two years which will cost more than the amount it has ever paid into the sinking fund.

"We have accomplished a great work in Middlesboro during the past year," Capt. F. J. Steinhour stated in a communication to William Wallbrecht, secretary of the Community Chest. "We have found many cases of extreme poverty and suffering which the funds from the Community Chest helped us to relieve. We take this step to thank you for the great part you took in helping us to be a blessing to Middlesboro." The report in full is printed elsewhere in the paper.

That the Salvation Army is a blessing to Middlesboro is not doubted by any one. Its officers take off our hands the work of properly investigating cases of mendicancy and of administering the necessary relief and rescue work.

The Rev. W. K. McClure will address the audience briefly on the work of the Salvation Army at the Mornings theatre tonight. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

Judge Bethurum of Lexington, Is Middlesboro.

Judge B. J. Bethurum of Lexington, who is in Middlesboro now for a two weeks' visit, will be the Republican nominee for United States senator from this state without opposition, according to present indications. Senator Richard P. Ernst will not be a candidate for the nomination again this year, it is understood.

He declares he has already improved since coming here and that he is well pleased with the town. INDICTMENT OF SEN. WHEELER WAS JUSTIFIED

Minority Report Up-

Grand Jury.

FRAME-UP DENIED

Senator Sterling, Investigator, Says
He Limits Matter to Justification — No Question of Guilt.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Montana Federal grand jury was justified in returning an indictment against Senator Wheeler, Democrat, of that state, in the opinion of Senator Sterling, Republican, of South Dakota, who submitted the minority report to the Senate today in his capacity as member of the special committee which investigated the indictment.

Sterling limited his report to the question of justification, declaring that the guilt or innocence of Wheeler was not a proper subject of inquiry by the committee but was solely a matter for determination by the courts. Sterling asserted that Wheeler's charge that the indictments were a frame-up was "entirely without proof."

Andy Wilder's Bus Is Destroyed By Fire

The bus operated by Andy Wilder on the Middlesboro Edgewood road, was entirely destroyed by fire on the Edgewood road near the fair grounds Saturday night. Mrs. Audie Riden, a passenger, was slightly burned on the foot and back. Only three other persons were in the car and they escaped without injury.

While the fire originated from the engine of the vehicle, the exact cause of it is not known. The driver stopped it when he discovered the fire coming up through the floor under his feet. The passengers quickly left the car which was soon in a mass of flames. As no chemical extinguisher was carried and no means of combating the fire being available, the woodwork of the bus was entirely burned within a few minutes. It is understood that the car was not insured.

Liberty Bell On Wheels, Lessen Risk By Fire

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—The Liberty Bell, emblem of American independence, has been effectively safeguarded by being mounted on wheels for quick removal from Independence Hall in case of fire.

The bell, according to the regulations worked out, is the first article in the building to be removed if fire breaks out. The guards have been trained by repeated drills in the rapid moving of the chime.

In order to make doubly certain that no fire can break out in the building, a fixed rule prohibits placing of any rubbish in the basement. The heating plant has been removed to a specially built cellar apart from the hall. Installation of an automatic sprinkling system is under way.

MAN KNOWN HERE SLAIN AT LOYAL

Mrs. Biggerstaff's Nephew Found
Killed, Nine Shots In His Body.

Arthur Chapman, 22, formerly of Middlesboro, was killed by an unknown person near his home at Loyal Saturday. His body was found near a house there at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night. He had been shot nine times.

Sheriff J. H. Blair of Harlan county came through Middlesboro yesterday, presumably on trail of the slayer. Officers believe they know the identity of the murderer though his name has not been made public.

A young man who was with Chapman when he was shot and is believed to have been the only witness says that Chapman was killed by a man who mistook him for some one else. The witness said he and Chapman were walking down the road together when this man ran out of the house and began firing. Chapman somewhat resembles another railroad worker whom this man had long borne a grudge, the witness said, and he believes this was the reason for the act.

The deceased is the son of George Chapman, who lived in Middlesboro several years ago. He is a nephew of Mrs. J. H. Biggerstaff of this city. Men who are acquainted with the character of Arthur Chapman say that he had an excellent reputation and was never known to be in trouble of any kind. He was employed in the railway supply house at Loyal and lived between Loyal and Baxter.

The body will be brought here today, according to present plans, and kept at the home of Mr. Biggerstaff until it is taken to Big Stone Gap for burial.

Tells Working Girls Wear Gaudy Clothes

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 19.—Wear gaudy clothes, be aggressive and catch your man, was the advice given American working girls by Helen Gwynne, of Indianapolis, Ind., retiring president of the Y. W. C. A.'s National Industrial Assembly.

Bobbed hair also was prescribed by Miss Gwynne as part of the costume for the working girl in humble circumstances.

Miss Gwynne, who explained just what was needed by the feminine workers of America not only to get a husband, but to succeed in business, is a working girl herself attending the Young Women's Christian Association's Convention.

"The demure, submissive working girl doesn't get very far in business or matrimony," declared Miss Gwynne whose assembly is made of 30,000 factory girls in all parts of the country.

SPECIAL TO Daily News.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The soldiers' bonus bill passed the Senate today, overriding the president's veto.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Seven Republican senators whose stand on overriding the presidential veto of the bonus bill is in doubt conferred today with President Coolidge. When they left the White House they said as far as they could ascertain the presidential veto would be overridden.

Almost without exception, these senators who were exhorted by the President to sustain his veto predicted a roll call before night which would override the veto and make the bonus insurance plan a law.

Belief that the soldier bonus bill will override the veto of President Coolidge is expressed in a telegram from Congressman J. M. Robison to A. D. DeBusk, commander of the local post Veterans of Foreign Wars, Saturday night. The message follows: "The House passed the bonus bill 313 to 78. I think the Senate will pass it early next week."

THE FARMER AND GOOD ROADS

That the Nation needs good roads is admitted by all.

That the Government should build, and maintain national highways, to which the States can and will build State trunk roads, they in turn to be fed by county and township roads, is agreed to by most students of the problem.

That they can not afford additional road taxes is contended by many farmers, already overburden with expense and with prices of farm products below their proper levels.

What is not generally understood is that any campaign of national highway building must inevitably be paid for by the richest section of the country, by the most populous section of the country, by the localities where the greatest amount of tax money can be raised.

It is a fact that when national highways are built they will be paid for, very largely, by the northeast of the United States and the large cities. Yet 90 per cent of all the road traffic in the country will go over them. The farmer will pay about 10 per cent and industry and cities will pay the rest.

The most ardent advocates of national highways in the northeast sections of the land know this. It does not frighten them. They already pay the larger part of the Nation's bills. Why shouldn't they? If 100 people live in a small town and wish to build a quarter of mile of road to a nearby lake, on the shore of which lives one man, do the hundred people stop because the one man will benefit 100 per cent and pay but 1 per cent? They do not. They build the road. The northeastern section of the country, the thickly populated, filled-with-factories localities, will benefit immeasurably from national highways. They will benefit, because the farmer will benefit, and they are happy that he will benefit.

The farmers can not afford not to have national highways when they get 90 per cent of the good and pay but 10 per cent of the cost!

COOLIDGE AND THE HOME

President Coolidge in his address opening the observance of Better Homes Week, did well to emphasize the spiritual as well as the material side of the subject. It goes without saying that a home that is comfortable and attractive contributes to the happiness of those who occupy it. Those back of the movement which is taking on extra activities this week, are rendering a most important service in promoting the education of the people as to the type of homes which should be built and the manner in which they should be equipped. The Independent has emphasized that there could be no more practical philanthropy than the building of comfortable and attractive houses to be sold or rented at moderate prices. After paying a tribute to those who are trying to meet the demand for better houses, the president impresses that in the accomplishment of this an important step will have been taken toward improvement of the well-being of the nation. Continuing:

The American home is the source of our National well-being. In it our high traditions of service and integrity are fostered. From the home there migrate respect for the rights of others and the habit of co-operating for worthy ends. Through sharing its common enterprises and common sacrifices the child develops that sturdiness of character which distinguishes the manhood and womanhood of our land.

Thus we are reminded that home-builders are not alone those whose materials are wood, brick, stone and marble. Good fathers and mothers add immeasurably to the structure by the inculcation of ideal and the spirit of love. Contentment is the great end sought. Down through the centuries there has come to us: "Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith." The good home takes hold of the heart. It becomes a part of the lives of its occupants. Nothing can efface its charms.

Let thought be given to the home in all its phases. Whether a palace or a cottage, if either lacks the right spirit in its occupants it will be but a house. It takes love and kindness to make a home of it.

TIRELESS WIRELESS

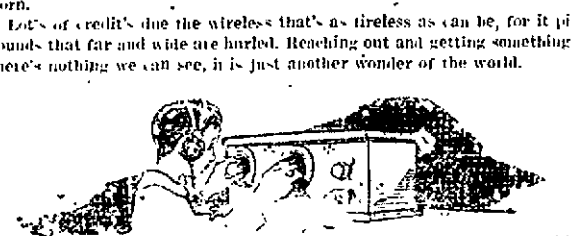

What's the use of real statistics on the static of the air? What's the difference what is floating through space? Just as long as we are positive that something's really there, let's be satisfied to let it have its place.

Since the tireless wireless doings have been part of daily life, all the world has turned to gently tuning in. And we listen, scared of missing things of gladness or of strife, and we share the tireless wireless with our kin.

Mother, Aunt, and Sister Mary stay at home most every night. They are harking to an opera far away. Father, Uncle, Brother Harry get the progress of a fight, and the tireless wireless works both night and day.

Music comes and fills the household and there's cheerfulness galore and it makes you kinda glad you were born. Goodness knows what's in the future and what wonders are in store when, today, they take the air sound from a horn.

Let's of credit due the wireless that's as tireless as can be, for it picks up sounds that far and wide are harled. Reaching out and getting something, when there's nothing we can see, it is just another wonder of the world.

Redecoration of Hotel Cumberland Is Plan

Redecoration of the interior of the Cumberland hotel is planned for the near future, according to Maurice Todes, lessee who is in town today. The work which will cost several thousands of dollars will probably begin this week.

An expert decorator from St. Louis will be in charge of the work and he will have six or seven assistants. The lobby, dining room, grill room, guest rooms and, in fact, all the interior will be decorated in the most modern style. "I intend to have the place in first-class shape by the time the golf tournament visitors arrive here," Mr. Todes stated.

"Buying On Credit"

MEANS YOU'RE MAKING PROMISES

Every time you go into a store and "charge" a purchase the sales slip on which your purchase is listed goes up to the credit office. It is called to the credit man's attention and, when he does approve the charge, he does so with the express understanding that the bill will be paid promptly when it is due on the first of the month following.

If, when you made these purchases, you were to explain that you would take sixty or ninety days or more to settle the bill, you might get the extra consideration and you might not. What happened would depend very largely on how you had been paying your bills in the past.

The point is, you would appreciate that you were asking for consideration very much out of the ordinary. Reverse the proposition and you will see that whenever you take sixty or ninety days to pay a bill you are doing something the merchant had not agreed to.

When a charge account bill runs for more than two or three months, the chances are the merchant is losing money on your business. And it is always a certainty that your credit standing is being seriously impaired, unless you have a special understanding.

Seventeenth of a series of talks on personal credit addressed to people who have charge accounts.

M. H. S. TRACK TEAM WINNER CHAMPIONSHIP

Final Score, Saturday
67½ to 52½ for Pineville.

RUSS BROWN - HIGH

Cheyney Injures Leg, Winning 50-Yard Dash—Local Relay Team Makes Excellent Showing.

The Middlesboro High School Track Team, won the championship of Southeastern Kentucky by defeating Pineville High and Barboursville High in the championship meet held at Pineville Saturday afternoon. The final score was Middlesboro 67½, Pineville 52½, Barboursville 1. The other schools withdrew their entries as they felt that they had no chance of winning.

Russ Brown was the high point man winning first place in the high and broad jumps and second in the fifty and hundred yard dashes. He made a total of sixteen points. He was followed closely behind by James and Earl of Pineville and Chesnev of Middlesboro who had fourteen points each to their credit. Chesnev had the misfortune of injuring his leg in the fifty yard dash and as a result took only second place in the high jump.

The only other mishap in the meet was in the 440 yard dash when Euster accidentally tripped Wallbrecht, his own teammate. Wallbrecht was leading at the time of the accident and Fuster was only a pace behind. As a result of his fall Wallbrecht was unable to finish. Euster finished but was disqualified because of the foul and Pineville was given first and second place. Stone showed up well in the pole vault, clearing 9 feet 2 inches, the best that has ever been done in this section.

Wallbrecht after his hard luck in the 440, came back in the 880, beating Euster his own teammate, who was a close second. Lambert was first in the mile defeating his nearest competitor by more than fifty yards. He also tied for third place in the high jump. Kinnaird won the 220, beating Earl, Pineville's sprint star. Kinnaird also placed second in the low hurdles. Cleland won second in the javelin throw, Mayes second in the shot put, Van Beber second in the broad jump, and Fuster second in the half mile. Faulconer and Gibson also contributed to the score with thirds in the pole vault and the discus.

The half-mile relay team composed of Kinnaird, Brown, Van Beber and Chesnev walked away from Pineville in the fast time of 1 minute 44 seconds. However, according to the rules of the meet no points were given in the relay.

This meet gave a big boost to track and field sports in this section. Coaches from other schools were present and said that their schools would take up track work next year and the Championship Meet will probably be an annual affair in the future.

Black Gold, Derby Favorite, Wins Great Race Saturday

By Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, May 19.—West triumphed over the east for the first time since 1921 in the historic Kentucky derby Saturday when Black Gold, the favorite, won the race by a scant half length in a slashing drive to the wire, defeating eighteen of the noblest three year-olds in training, before a crowd of 75,000 to 80,000 persons, the greatest throng that ever witnessed a horse race in America.

The west's victory was overwhelming, as the first four horses to finish were western owned. Chilhowee, ranking among the worst of contenders and owned by Gallaher brothers of Lexington, Ky., was second by the margin of a short nose over Effie Butler, which in a heart-tearing effort beat Altawood for third honors by a half a length. Beau Butler was the entry of Colonel F. R. Bradley, whose Behave Yourself, won the derby in 1921.

Black Gold won the race at one and a quarter miles over a track lightning fast in 2 05 1 5, two seconds slower than the record, established by Old Rosebud in 1914. The horse belonged to Mrs. R. M. Hoots, of Tulsa, Okla., the second woman ever to have sent a derby winner to the post. Jimmy Mooney was the triumphant jockey, and Harry Webb, affectionately called "the old man," was the proud conditioner of the victor.

Black Gold won for his owner $52,775 in cash and gold trophy worth $5,000. For himself Black Gold merited a rose wreath with sentiment above the snuff of money and the admiration of the record-breaking crowd which will never forget the courage of his conquest.

Mrs. Hoots, past middle age, 44, comely attired in a very ordinary dress like she probably would wear on a shopping errand in contrast to the vivid raiment of the society leaders occupying boxes adjoining hers. She wore a grey voile dress with an old rose figure and a black straw hat close fitting, pulled down on the head.

When Mrs. Hoots was called into the judges' stand with her trainer and jockey she probably was so happy and so excited that she couldn't express her appreciation. At least she never smiled even when the crowd raised a mighty cheer in her honor. Jockey Mooney bashfully waved to the crowd and accepted a pair of gold spurs presented him.

DEATH, THE BANDIT
Death is a Bandit who can steal the last sensation that we feel, and, robbing us, he has acquired all earthly things we once desired—The joy of Love, the happy hours, The sunlight and the scent of flowers.

To Youth sometimes he'll only give A little space in which to live, While from the old and tired who pray For quick release he hides away. His every act reveals a flaw, Bath Death, the Bandit, knows no law!

Delightfully Refreshing!

No matter what you're playing, here's a drink that makes a good game better—the real Orange-Crush! Try one today—fresh off the ice.

Six reasons why Orange-Crush is so utterly delicious: (1) The natural fruit oil of oranges—which gives that delicate and distinctive flavor; (2) The natural acid of citrus fruits (oranges, lemons and limes)—which gives the tang; (3) Orange juice; (4) Carbonated water—which gives "zip," sparkle, purity; (5) U. S. Certified food color—which makes it as appealing to the eye as to the taste; (6) Pure cane sugar.

That's all. My, what a drink!

Why A Princess Wrote A Song For Springtime

By Associated Press.

HONOLULU, May 17.—The recent sale of a tract of beach land at Maunawili, on the windward side of the island of Oahu, has recalled the origin of a song that made known the haunting music of these islands to the rest of the world.

It was at this wonderful beach that the late Queen Liliuokalani received the inspiration for Hawaii's best-known song, "Aloha Oe," or "Farewell to Thee." She was then a princess, and visited Maunawili ranch with a party from the Hawaiian court. On the day of leaving all the visitors were decked with garlands of flowers. One of the men lingered behind to say good-by to a girl who lived at the ranch. They walked apart down the beach; there was a time, but the road will not be at its best until that date.

The road through Decatur, Kenton, and Demosville is still closed while repairs are being made south of Kenton. Southbound traffic from Cincinnati should cross the river at Newport, then go by way of Alexandria, and Grant's Lick to Butler. At Butler turn to right to avoid construction south of town, and go to the L.L. road, then turn left and go three miles to Greenwood and on to Lexington; then go through Lexington and Lexington to Lexington. Excepting a few rough places this road is in good condition to Lexington.

The L.L. road south of Covington between Independence and the Pendleton County line is under construction. There are several detours and a difficult ford to cross. For safe and certain going take the Alexandria route just described.

The Dixie Highway south of Covington is under construction. Local traffic through Florence and Williams town should detour at Walton and Dry Ridge.

From Lexington to Rockcastle County line there are two rough stretches of three miles each.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY—From the Madison county line to Mt. Vernon is rough, but repairs are being made. Most of the traffic going via Nicholasville, Camp Dick Robinson, Lancaster, Crab Orchard, and Mt. Vernon to avoid repairs work. In traveling from Mt. Vernon to Livingston, keep the main road which is in good condition, excepting the new earth grade one mile north of Livingston; this at present is in fair condition, and traffic is going through with but little difficulty. From Livingston to Rockcastle River the gravel surface is in fair condition.

LAUREL COUNTY—The earth grade just south of Rockcastle River is in good condition at present. Traffic is going through with ease in dry weather. The waterbound macadam section joining this on the south is in excellent condition.

kiss, and the princess witnessed the scene.

On the way back to Honolulu Liliuokalani persistently hummed a tune over and over again. She said a melody was going through her head, and she was seeking words for it. She was thinking of that leave-taking on the white sands of Maunawili. Near Honolulu the party rested, and the princess sang bits of the melody. The phrases in the chorus of "Aloha Oe," "one fond embrace," and "until we meet again," had their basis in the scene on the beach.

At the palace the princess wrote down the notes and the words, and the melody was later arranged by Henri Berger, master of the royal Hawaiian band.

The purchasers of the ranch property will sell it off in residence lots.

WHITLEY COUNTY—Macadam road from Corbin to Williamsburg is in excellent condition. From Williamsburg to Jellico, the graded earth road is passable in dry weather; traffic going through with difficulty. Travelers bound for Tennessee and beyond should take the "Boone Way" at Corbin.

KNOX COUNTY—Tennessee traffic should go by way of Barbourville, Pineville and Middlesboro to Cumberland Gap. Grade and drain construction in progress between Corbin and Barbourville. The road three miles south of Corbin by way of Woodbine and Dishman Springs to Barbourville is now in good condition. Road through Barbourville, Pineville and Middlesboro to Cumberland Gap is good to excellent condition. Watch for the "Invisible Track Road" in Pineville; you will know it by the four longitudinal ruts in the surface.
